Updates for the week of September 21:

- The Central Racine County Health Department announced it will open a referral-only, limited-hours testing site for COVID-19. Target groups for testing include residents and people who work in the jurisdiction who are at the highest risk of disease transmission, such as close contacts to a case and people associated with workplace/school outbreaks. Testing will be based on a referral process in which those eligible will be notified of this testing option.
 - The Wisconsin Department of Health Services has a map of community testing sites in Wisconsin that can be found here. Health care providers including Ascension, Froedtert and Aurora also continue to provide COVID-19 tests by appointment. For more information:
